Sir,

Rel 151-05
Z

I have the honor to state that the Madras Railway Company, in accordance with the award passed by the Hon'ble the British Resident in the arbitration effected between the said Company and the City Municipal Council in the year 1904, used to pay to this Municipality a lump-sum assessment of Rs 1980/- per annum, as per details noted in the margin, for services rendered in satisfaction of all Municipal demands other than the excess water charges.

Rs 900/-	for water and lighting service.
Rs 900/-	in lieu of house tax.
Rs 180/-	for special conservancy work.
Rs 1980/-

2. From the 1st July 1910, payment of Rs 180/- on account of charges for the special conservancy work was stopped by the Company, as they were allowed, at their request, to make their own arrangements for conserving the station premises.

3. As the award referred to above, was fixed for a period of ten years with effect from the 1st July 1904, it expired on the 30th June 1914.

4. The Madras Railway Company when the City Municipal Council entered into the agreement referred to, in the matter of the lump-sum payment of municipal taxes, have also become defunct and the Madras and the Southern Mahratta Rail Company have taken their place.

5. Since the date of the last agreement in question, certain additional buildings as shown in the accompanying statement, have been erected in the City Station premises, and their total assessment, per year, as detailed in the above statement, comes to ₹321-4-10.

6. I request you will be so good as to arrange to pay to the City Municipality, Bangalore, the annual lump-sum tax of ₹1000/- formerly paid by the Madras Railway Company, together with an additional sum of ₹321-4-10, being the tax imposed on the newly erected buildings as per statement herewith furnished.

As per orders conveyed I beg to submit, that the 5 buildings alluded to in the letter received from Government and alleged as not traceable at the Bangalore City Station, do actually exist there and used for the purposes intended by the Railway Authorities. Serial No. 18 known as Sandal Koti Buildings is used as Traffic Clerks' Quarters. As this building was borne as "Sandal Koti Buildings" in the accounts furnished to the Railway Department in the previous years, the same name was given to it while submitting the particulars on the last occasion. After a reverification of the buildings in question on the spot, I submit below the additional particulars which I have been able to gather since and will, if so ordered, be ready to point outat any moment these buildings to any Railway Officer.
